To all our visitors...

Bishop John R. Gaydos, the clergy and the faithful of the Diocese of Jefferson City welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Our parish was formed in 1959 and was elevated to the title of Cathedral in 1968 and dedicated in 1974. Please enjoy the beauty of this spacious building dedicated to the Glory of God and the memory of Saint Joseph, the Husband of Mary. It was built for the inspiration of all who enter. Free tour booklets are available.

All visitors who are not of the Roman Catholic faith are most welcome to join us in prayer and worship, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of full unity and membership in the Catholic community. Together let us all pray for the unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Roman Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Parish, please call the parish office at 573-635-7991.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

We often speak of Christ calling us to discipleship. The readings on this Fifth Sunday of Easter address that discipleship and what it means to each of us. When the U.S. Bishops issued a pastoral letter on stewardship, they titled it "Stewardship: A Disciple's Response." Just as today's readings affirm that idea of discipleship, each of us must strive to achieve it.

The First Reading from the Acts of the Apostles recounts more about the evangelization and missions of Sts. Paul and Barnabas. Paul and Barnabas are excellent examples of what it means to be disciples of Christ. However, they want to do more than just be disciples; they want to make disciples as well. As they pass through the various cities they visited, today's Scripture points out, "They strengthened the spirits of the disciples and exhorted them to persevere in the faith."

Paul and Barnabas wanted to do much more than gain conversions to the faith; they had a passion to make disciples. That is a passion we should share. However, it begins with us becoming disciples ourselves, and then recognizing that part of being a disciple is recruiting and forming other disciples.

The Second Reading from Revelations reveals a vision, an understanding, which came to St. John. In the final verse God declares that He makes all things new. This implies the completion of God's plan for us, but again we must play a part by striving to be good disciples. In one of his letters, St. Paul asserts, "If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new."

To become "new" requires conversion. That conversion includes embracing Christ as our Savior, and our commitment to be His disciple as good stewards. Once God makes things new, they remain new. Note that God speaks in the present tense. The Lord does not say, "I have made things new," or "I will make things new." He states clearly that He is making things new, right now — today.

The Gospel Reading from St. John answers any questions we may have about what is expected of us if we are to be disciples of Christ. Jesus says, "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." In those terms discipleship is quite basic and simplistic: to truly be a disciple we must love one another. That is it.

The Roman Emperor Tertullian, more than 100 years after the crucifixion of Christ, commented about the Christians whom he had witnessed, "See how they love one another." In love we find satisfaction and comfort. Not just being loved, but by loving. That is what Christ asks of us in discipleship. Although it is not involved, we do understand what a challenge it can be. That is the challenge of being a disciple, of being a steward, of being a follower of Christ. Love one another!

CRY ROOM PEWS— FINAL CALL

The four pews in our Cry Room or Bride's Room are in very poor condition. Monsignor Kurwicki is thinking of removing them to open up that room and replace them with chairs. This would enlarge the space and make it more flexible for small receptions. If you have any ideas or comments on this matter, please call him at (573) 635-7991.

A Prayer for the Jubilee of Mercy

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us
To be merciful like the heavenly Father,
And have told us that whoever sees you sees God.
Show us your face and well will be saved.
You are the visible face of the invisible Father,
Of the God who manifests his power
Above all by forgiveness and mercy:
Let the Church be your visible face in the world.
Send your Spirit and consecrate
Every one of us with its anointing,
So that the Jubilee of Mercy
May be a year of grace from the Lord,
And your Church, with renewed enthusiasm,
May bring good news to the poor,
Proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed,
And restore sight to the blind.

Amen.

HELIAS CATHOLIC FOUNDATION

The 2016 Helias Foundation Annual Fund Drive Give like a Crusader, LIVE Like a Crusader being led by Ashton Frank and Jason Luebbering, with a goal of $350,000, kicks off the weekend of April 23-24. The efforts of the Helias Foundation are crucial to the success and future of Helias Catholic High School. As the school concludes a major capital campaign -- a portion of which is designated to bolster the foundation's endowment -- it is all the more important to continue supporting the ongoing work of the Annual Fund Drive. Although separate from the capital campaign, gifts received through the Annual Fund Drive will further strengthen the endowed funds of the foundation, thus ensuring that the recently announced tuition rate reduction at Helias is viable for the long term. In other words, your support of the Annual Fund Drive will help not only today's students, but young people for generations to come! Last year, due to the generosity of friends, parents, alumni and local businesses, the Foundation was able to provide nearly $276,500 to Helias Catholic High School. All Helias Foundation funds are endowed with the earnings used to help meet the financial needs of Helias Catholic High School. Contributions can be made online at www.heliasfoundation.org. Thank you for your prayers and support!
