Bishop John R. Gaydos, the clergy and the faithful of the Diocese of Jefferson City welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Our parish was formed in 1959 and was elevated to the title of Cathedral in 1968 and dedicated in 1974. welcome to join us in prayer and worship, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of full unity and membership in the Catholic community. Together let us all pray for the unity of all believers.

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY: A VOCATION ANGLE

First Reading: Acts 2:14, 36-41

When Peter address the crowd, "they were cut to the heart." Sometimes the Holy Spirit speaks to us through a moment of clarity deep in our spirit. Many men who have been called to the priesthood have had this experience—during Mass, on a retreat, or at a youth event. The question is, how do you respond? Will you be like those in the crowd that day, who responded wholeheartedly to the call?

Psalm: Psalm 23

When a young person feels called to the priesthood or religious life, he or she can experience a lot of confusion and anxiety. But the saints tell us never to make a decision about one's vocation in a state of fear. Rather, like the psalmist, we must learn to discover a place of inner peace, where we hear Jesus best, and then trustingly respond to His call.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:20-25

When faced with the choice of marriage and family or priesthood and religious life, people are drawn to the former by their very natures. Sometimes, though, sacrifices should be made for the sake of a great good. Like Jesus, some are called to celibacy for the Kingdom of God.

Gospel: John 10:1-10

To hear the Shepherd's voice requires quiet and prayer. Pope Saint John Paul II said, "Young people, if they can be taught how to pray, can be trusted to know what to do with God's call." Preach about prayer, methods of prayer, and the importance of listening for God's voice, especially when making big decisions in life.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Shepherds and sheep were so much a part of life for Jesus and those from Galilee. Galilee was, after all, largely a rural area and raising sheep and shepherding was an intricate part of their lives. That is why the image of a shepherd with his sheep was so often used during biblical times. It was a connection with which people could identify. It is equally important for us today to understand this important cultural connection for them. Shepherding was all about feeding the lambs and the sheep (recall that Jesus tells Peter "Feed my sheep."), bringing them to good pasture lands and water ("The Lord is my shepherd...He makes me lie down in green pastures; he leads me beside quiet waters; he restores my soul."); going after lost lambs ("Does he not leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it?"); and protects the sheep in the field and the fold ("The watchman opens the gate, and the sheep listen to his voice."). Our Gospel reading today comes from St. John 10: 1-10. In St. John 10: 11, the next verse, Christ declares "I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep." As Catholics and Christians, we, too, are called to be Good Shepherds to all those with whom we come in contact. It may be from another culture than ours, but we should understand full well the implications of that.—catholicsteward.com

PRO-LIFE NEWS & EVENTS

"...we will stand up every time that human life is threatened. When the sacredness of life before birth is attacked, we will stand up and proclaim that no one ever has the authority to destroy unborn life." - St. Pope John Paul II.

Helias Foundation 2017 Annual Fund Drive
"Living Legacy – One Generation at a Time"
Goal: $350,000

The 2017 Helias Foundation Annual Fund Drive Living Legacy – One Generation at a Time being led by Jason Luebbering '93 and Susie Theroff '85, with a goal of $350,000, kicks off the weekend of May 6-7. A primary objective of Helias Catholic High School is to provide higher academic standards for our students. It is incumbent upon the Foundation to ensure that we build a financial base in order to continue to provide an exemplary learning environment for future generations. The Foundation is able to do this by supporting long-term financial stability for a quality Helias Catholic education based in faith, knowledge and service to others. Last year, due to the generosity of friends, parents, alumni and local businesses, the Foundation was able to provide $275,000 to Helias Catholic High School in annual support for the current school year. All Helias Foundation funds are endowed with the earnings used to help meet the financial needs of Helias Catholic High School. Contributions can be made online at www.heliasfoundation.org. Thank you for your prayers and support! Be a part of this year's foundation of faith!

Parents, as many of you are aware, television and social media are introducing our teens, preteens (and younger) to some sensitive and complex topics. These are the types of topics that you, as parents, should be discussing with them, but this is difficult to do when media are able to introduce ideas under the radar, as there are so many devices that allow teens to view privately. In a school environment, we quickly become aware that your children are talking about these sensitive topics among their peers, and this message is an encouragement for you to make sure to talk with your sons/daughters about themes or ideas that they may have been exposed to through popular media. In addition, we want to be your partner in having this dialogue, so if you need resources, please do not hesitate to contact your teacher or the school.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

In case of a weather emergency during Mass, the weather siren will warn the priest of the situation. The priest will then advise the congregation to seek shelter in the undercroft. The ushers shall assist in directing the congregation seeking shelter. Once it is determined to be safe, the congregation will be directed back to the nave of the Cathedral and will be either dismissed or the Mass will be completed, depending on how much time has passed. In the event of a fire which would require the evacuation of the building, the priest will direct the congregants to evacuate the premises. The ushers will assist the faithful in the evacuation. Congregants shall be directed to the parking lot. No attempt should be made to move vehicles in the immediate vicinity of the Cathedral (unless directed by the appropriate authorities).

To be saints is not a privilege for a few, but a vocation for everyone.
