

Fr. Faraway Walks “The Way of St. James”

Fr. Faraway and Colette Tellman walked the Camino de Santiago de Compostella (aka “The Way of St. James”) in Spain in early June. He looks a little disheveled as they walked 120 km or 75 miles and his feet hurt. Here is Fr. Faraway at the end of the walk in front of the Cathedral of Santiago. The cathedral is undergoing some renovations.

Did you know “The Way of St. James” was one of the most important Christian pilgrimages during the Middle Ages?

