ALLELUIA SUNDAY
FEBRUARY 26, 2017

To all our visitors...

Bishop John R. Gaydos, the clergy and the faithful of the Diocese of Jefferson City welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Our parish was formed in 1959 and was elevated to the title of Cathedral in 1968 and dedicated in 1974. Please enjoy the beauty of this spacious building dedicated to the Glory of God and the memory of Saint Joseph, the Husband of Mary. It was built for the inspiration of all who enter. Free tour booklets are available.

All visitors who are not of the Roman Catholic faith are most welcome to join us in prayer and worship, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of full unity and membership in the Catholic community. Together let us all pray for the unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Roman Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Parish, please call the parish office at 573-635-7991.

All contributions to the Cathedral ministries and maintenance are sincerely appreciated. Please remember this Cathedral parish in your Will, gifts and estate plans to support our parish's ongoing mission.

LENTEN REGULATIONS 2017

ALLELUIA SUNDAY: The Sunday before Ash Wednesday is traditionally 'Alleluia Sunday'. This comes from the fact that the Alleluia will not be sung again until the Great Easter Vigil.

The Time of Lent began this year on Ash Wednesday, March 1 and ends with the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, April 13, when the Easter Triduum begins. Lent is the principal penitential season in the Church year. All the Christian faithful are urged to develop and maintain a voluntary program of self-denial (in addition to the following items), serious prayer, and the performing of deeds of charity and mercy, including giving of alms.

ABSTINENCE - Everyone 14 years of age and over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.

FAST- Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 is required to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is permitted. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each person's needs, but together these two should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids (including milk and fruit juices) are allowed.

Exempt from fasting and abstinence regulations: pregnant and/or nursing women, manual laborers engaged in heavy, strenuous work, people who are sick and/or frail, as well as military personnel deployed or in hostile environments. People in doubt regarding fasting and abstinence should consult their parish priest/pastoral administrator or deacon. Disregarding completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.

Let us draw nearer to God this Lent! 2Cor 6:2

WELCOME!

The Carmelite Sisters are scheduled to return at the end of this month! Contact information will be published once available.

MONTH OF SAINT JOSEPH

As you prepare for Lent, consider fasting from things that might stand in the way of you being the son, daughter, parent or spouse that God called you to be. Don't be afraid to go against what the rest of popular culture tells you is important. Be careful of the words you use and the actions you take. Attend Mass as a family every weekend. Avoid listening to music or comedy programs that send sinful messages. Try listening to Catholic Radio. Avoid watching television shows or movies that portray family life in a negative fashion. Spend less time on the computer or other devices and more time with members of your family. By making a few changes in your life during the Lenten time, you will be amazed at how God will enrich your life.

—Vocations Committee

"Lent is like a long 'retreat' during which we can turn back into ourselves and listen to the voice of God, in order to defeat the temptations of the Evil One. It is a period of spiritual 'combat' which we must experience alongside Jesus, not with pride and presumption, but using the arms of faith: prayer, listening to the word of God, and penance. In this way we will be able to celebrate Easter in truth, ready to renew the promises of our baptism."

—Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

VITAE'S 25th ANNIVERSARY

Vitae Foundation's 25th Anniversary Celebration will be held on Wednesday, March 29 at 6:30 PM and Thursday, March 30, at 7:30 AM at the Capitol Plaza Hotel in Jefferson City. STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

St. Paul had both a deep understanding and appreciation for stewardship — what it meant to be a good steward. In his First Letter to the Corinthians, our Second Reading on this last Sunday in Ordinary Time before Lent begins, Paul states eloquently, “Thus should one regard us: as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.” As is the case with all Holy Scripture, Paul is writing to more than the Corinthians; he is writing to each of us as well. Paul's understanding of what a steward was is that he manages the household of God. Managing included preserving and protecting. We are also to be servants (disciples) of Christ, and Paul goes on to say that a servant steward must be trustworthy. To Paul that meant we are to be faithful in order to be good disciples. There are several difficulties for us in all of those terms and requirements: being stewards, being servants, and being faithful. They mean that we have to place ourselves second to others and second most of all to Christ our Savior. We tend to question this and tend to have strong feelings of independence. That is what we learn from our society. Yet, to be a steward like Paul requires us to be humble and accepting. That may be our greatest test. St. Augustine wrote, “What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of others.” That, too, is stewardship. catholicsteward.com
