To all our visitors...

Bishop John R. Gaydos, the clergy and the faithful of the Diocese of Jefferson City welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Our parish was formed in 1959 and was elevated to the title of Cathedral in 1968 and dedicated in 1974. Please enjoy the beauty of this spacious building dedicated to the Glory of God and the memory of Saint Joseph, the Husband of Mary. It was built for the inspiration of all who enter. Free tour booklets are available.

All visitors who are not of the Roman Catholic faith are most welcome to join us in prayer and worship, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of full unity and membership in the Catholic community. Together let us all pray for the unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Roman Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Parish, please call the parish office at 573-635-7991.

All contributions to the Cathedral ministries and maintenance are sincerely appreciated. Please remember this Cathedral parish in your Will, gifts and estate plans to support our parish's ongoing mission.

A LETTER FROM OUR BISHOP

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Many dioceses, including our own, face challenges due to priest shortages, lack of funds, remote geography, or poor parishes. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal answers these needs with grants for projects to strengthen the faith of the people. The Catholic Home Mission Appeal affects the lives of over 9 million U.S. Catholics.

The Marshall Islands cover an area of 500,000 square miles. Travel is often difficult and communication is unreliable. The Islands do not have any native priests and have only one local permanent deacon and sister; and so, the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart provide for the pastoral and sacramental needs of the people. The Marshall Islands welcomed with great joy a seminarian in 2014! Thanks to a grant from the Catholic Home Missions Appeal, they are able to send him to seminary for his studies. He is already a witness and example to other young men on the Islands.

Not all the islands have a resident priest and the Church relies on prayer leaders to lead the Sunday liturgy of Scripture reading and reflection as well as distribution of Communion. Thanks to a grant from Catholic Home Missions, these catechists attend a yearly training and retreat, and new leaders are guided by experienced prayer leaders.

In our own Diocese, a Catholic Home Missions grant helps provide ministry to our growing Hispanic population. The critical work that we do with families, with faith formation, and with lay leadership development is made possible by the Catholic Home Missions.

With your support, next weekend's Catholic Home Missions Appeal will continue to provide catechesis, lay leadership training, seminarian education, and other essential pastoral care. Please be generous and help strengthen the Church at home. Thank you, and God bless you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Bishop John R. Gaydos

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Today's readings contrast the discouraging experience of Sts. Paul and Barnabas in the First Reading from the Acts of the Apostles to the Glory of Heaven reflected in the Second Reading from the Book of Revelations to the brief but definitive assurance we receive from Jesus Himself in the Gospel Reading from John.

At the beginning of the First Reading Paul and Barnabas find themselves in Antioch in Pisidia after departing from Perga. Perga is a city on coast and Antioch is some 135 miles distance from there located in the mountains in the area called Galatia (you may recall Paul's Letter to the Galatians). There is some scholarly thought that Paul headed to the mountains for health reasons.

Regardless, he and Barnabas initially received acceptance and enthusiasm in relation to their message of Jesus Christ, but then were rejected and banished from the region of Antioch. If we learn nothing else about Paul and his faith, we learn how devoted and determined he was, how strong and unfailing his faith tended to be. The message for us, of course, is that we need to achieve that same level of determination and commitment felt by Paul. St. Paul found a joy and happiness in his faith — something that we need to strive for, as well. That happiness is within reach for us but we must make an effort to attain it.

St. John's remarkable vision, as reported in the Second Reading from Revelations is filled with insights into Heaven for us. For those in Heaven there is an immediate presence of God. Those in Heaven can approach God and be with Him. There are no obstructions or obstacles. God dwells there "among His people." It is impossible for us to conceive of this, which is why this particular Scriptural passage may seem so unworldly to us. In the Psalms David sang, "May I dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life." That is our desire as well and that is fulfilled in Heaven, not on earth.

Our focus needs to always be on Heaven, certainly during this glorious Easter season. As is also reported in this Second Reading, "The one who sits on the throne will shelter them. They will not hunger or thirst anymore, nor will the sun or any heat strike them." This is truly paradise and that is our ultimate goal. "God will wipe away every tear from their eyes." It almost produces a vision of a loving mother wiping away the tears from the eyes of a child and providing that everlasting comfort. That happens in Heaven nevertheless. If we ask Him and trust in Him, God can provide comfort to us now, but in Heaven he will wipe away our sorrows and pains forever.

The Gospel Reading from St. John is in keeping with the clichéd phrase "short and sweet." Even though the Gospel Reading is not lengthy, the Lord makes some things very clear to us. He reaffirms what we have heard in the Second Reading when He says of His sheep, His flock, His followers, "I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish." This is Heaven as referenced in Revelations. This eternal life is greater than and far beyond what we can imagine having only experienced physical life. Eternal life is never-ending.

"No one can take them out of my hand." As followers of the Lord, as disciples, we know that He will take care of us, that we are safe in His Hands. It is this safety and security that can hold us up when we face the challenges outlined in the First Reading. It is comforting to know that the Hands that created the world created us also, and it is those Hands that keep us safe and hold on to us always.—www.catholicsteward.com

It is a week of learning about prayer and how The Our Father is our first learned prayer that Jesus taught the apostles. They will play games, watch skits, learn prayers, go to Mass, confession, learn songs, all with some amazing young college students.

7th thru 12th grades will be attending in the evening 7:00-9:00 p.m. to experience more about the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary and have some fun just being with the college students playing games, music, and praying. Please consider signing your children in grades 1-6 up for the week of June 19 thru 24 and grades 7-12 the week of June 19 thru 23. Forms can be found in the Parish Office or on the Cathedral youth website, <https://jccathedralyouth.wordpress.com/>.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, religious and consecrated persons.

Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call.

May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.
